12. [] LIAISON At the request of Bill Smith, Assistant for Congressional Relations, Office of the Vice President, I called Joseph Stewart, in the office of the Senate Majority Leader, and discussed the new guidelines for the issuance of compartmented clearances to the Legislative Branch. Stewart said that Senator Robert Byrd (D., W. Va.) feels there are too many people, including Senators, who have or want access to sensitive intelligence information who have no real need for it. He said that Senator Byrd has no need for additional clearances on his staff and joined with Minority Leader Howard Baker (R., Tenn.) in the letter to the Director requesting compartmented clearances only to accommodate Senator Baker. Stewart noted that Hoyt Purvis, who handles foreign policy matters for the Majority Leader, has all the necessary clearances and Senator Byrd sees no need to have anyone else on his staff cleared. Stewart said that Senator Byrd will not be out front in supporting the program but will help behind the scene. I made arrangements to meet with Mr. Stewart tomorrow morning at 10:00 a.m. to discuss this matter further. [] will accompany me.

14. [] LIAISON John Marshall and Paul O'Connell, on the staff of the Morgan-Schmitt Senate Select Committee on Ethics Subcommittee, visited Headquarters to discuss their investigation of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence oil study leak. [] NFAC/CSS, also took part in the discussion, which focused on the types of information provided by the Agency to the author of the study. It was agreed that Marshall and O'Connell would make another visit to speak with [] PCS/LOC, who worked closely with the author during her review of DDO documents. It was also agreed that we would eventually supply a written response to the Subcommittee's questions on this issue for the record.

23. [REDACTED] LIAISON Dave Boucher, in the office of Senator Frank Church (D., Idaho), called [REDACTED] of our office, asking for publication(s) on Soviet airborne capabilities and the Soviet amphibious fleet capabilities. After checking with [REDACTED] NFAC/CSS, I told him that the only materials on these subjects were highly classified. Mr. Boucher then told me that they were for a graduate student, and I suggested that the reports that I had would not be appropriate for passage to a graduate student constituent. Mr. Boucher accepted my comments as valid.
